Sir,

I have the honor to state that the municipal council of Naikanhatti municipality in the Challakere Taluk have resolved in their meeting held on 16th January 1919 that a tax of 2% on piece goods and a rate of 2 annas for each kerosine oil tin that may be brought into the municipality may be levied to improve the finance of the municipality As the present normal expenditure is almost equal to the normal receipts of the municipality and as the proposed levy is expected to bring in to the municipality an additional income of Rs 530 per annum, I recommend that the proposal of the municipal council may kindly be sanctioned by the Government

2 An extract from the resolutions of the municipal council is herein enclosed for favor of perusal

I have the honor to be,
S I R,
